

SRI SATGURU RAM SINGH JI

An International Symposium Celebrating the Bicentennial Birth Anniversary of the Pioneer of the Indian Freedom Movement in the Divine Presence of Sri Satguru Uday Singh Ji

“(Guru) Ram Singh, Sikh philosopher and reformer and the first Indian to use noncooperation and boycott of British merchandise and services as a political weapon.”
(Encyclopaedia Britannica Vol.8, Page 142)

“If we set aside all good deeds of (Guru) Baba Ram Singh on one side which he preached for the goodness of whole mankind and the country, only his preaching equal rights for men and women in the society takes him to the list of supreme reformers of the world.”
(S. Kapoor Singh I.C.S.)

“I see in earlier papers that Ram Singh was looked upon as a successor or actual re-embodiment of Guru Nanak (Dev Ji) the saint. He is now the representative of Guru Gobind (Singh Ji) the warrior.”
(Mr.J.W.MacNab, Commisioner Ambala had mentioned in his report dated 4-11-1871 AD)
